DNA AND GENEALOGY
Featuring Patti Lee Hobbs, CG[®], CGGSM

Patti Lee Hobbs, Certified Genealogist[®], Certified Genetic GenealogistSM, resides in Clever, Missouri. She considers herself blessed to have ancestors from many geographical locations leading to research in varied repositories. She serves on the editorial board for the National Genealogical Society Quarterly and is former trustee for both the Board for Certification of Genealogists and the BCG Education Fund. Patti is the coordinator for the week-long course "Genetics for Genealogists: Fundamentals of DNA" at the Institute of Genealogy and Historical Research (IGHR). Her two articles "DNA Identifies a Father for Rachel Lee of Huntingdon County, Pennsylvania," in March 2017 and "DNA Merges the Families of Stephen Stilwell of Dutchess County, New York; Cornwall, Upper Canada; and Coshocton County, Ohio," in March 2024 were published in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly. She is a contributing author of Advanced Genetic Genealogy: Techniques and Case Studies.
